

Email template to Introduce InsideTracker to your clients

Hi _____,

I'm excited to share that I've partnered with InsideTracker to provide personalized analysis and data-driven guidance to help you live healthier longer. As a member of their InsideTracker Pro network, my clients have access to exclusive pricing on InsideTracker plans so that we can build a comprehensive plan to optimize your health and performance.

About InsideTracker:

By analyzing the body's data from blood, DNA and fitness trackers, InsideTracker provides a clear picture of what's going on inside, along with a science-backed action plan for personal optimization. Recommendations from InsideTracker are based on your unique results and goals, such as boosting energy or increasing endurance.

[Feel free to personalize this for your audience or share any insights from your own InsideTracker experience.]

Check out this one-page overview to learn more and get started.

- Applying my code [\[INSERT CODE\]](#) at checkout will provide you with 25% off and give you the option to share your results with me.
- Follow instructions from InsideTracker about completing your account set up and to schedule your blood draw or upload results.
- Once your results are ready, we can leverage the insights and recommendations in our work together.
